

SBF established the Rising in Support of Enterprises (RISE) Programme to help SMEs transform and emerge stronger amidst COVID-19 challenges. SMEs can tap into the S$2.5 million RISE fund to defray costs of participation in capability upgrading and business growth activities.

One-Time Support of $500

Eligible SBF Members can participate in up to 3 RISE qualifying activities to maximise the support of up to S$500 (excluding GST). Each activity may have more than one participant.

Wide Range of Activities

SBF works closely with our programme partners, as well as trade association and chamber partners, to offer activities that cater to different business needs, including industry-specific programmes.

For Eligible SMEs

To qualify, the company must:

- Be an SBF member
- Have a paid-up capital not exceeding S$5 million
- Have paid up its subscription fees up till and including current membership year
- Have not received any previous RISE support

Qualifying Period

Available from 1 Jul 2020 to 31 Dec 2021, or until the RISE fund is exhausted, whichever is earlier.
